IRVING'S ARRIVAL.

Reception of the Great English Actor in New York.

His Appearance and Manner—What He Says About His American Tour—Lawrence Barrett's Welcoming Address—What Miss Terry Has to Say About the Hospitality of the States.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Punctually at 6 o'clock yesterday morning the steam tug Blackbird cast off her moorings and proceeded down the bay to meet the Britannic and welcome Henry Irving and Miss Ellen Irving to America. The following gentlemen were on board in addition to the reporters: Mr. H. E. Abbey, Signor Vianesi, the conductor of the new Metropolitan Opera House orchestra; Mr. Barantoni of the American Exchange; Bram Stokes, Mr. Irving's Manager; Joseph Hutton, of the London Times; Wallace Mackay, Illustrated London News; Marcus Meyer and Franklin Coln. Immediately that the Britannic was sighted the band awoke the morning echoes. Within a quarter of an hour the tug was alongside. Shortly after Mr. S. J. Tilden's yacht, the Yosemite, which had been placed at the service of Mr. Lawrence Barrett, and W. J. Florence slowed up to the port-side of the Britannic. At least a hundred saloon passengers had come on deck to ascertain the cause of this unusual gathering. A cheer went up from the tug, to which the ladies responded by waving their handkerchiefs, while the band played "God Save the Queen." As soon as the gang-plank had been made secure, Mr. Abbey, accompanied by Mr. Stokes, went on board the Britannic. After a short interval Mr. Irving came up on deck. The distinguished visitor was most enthusiastically cheered. Mr. Irving bowed his acknowledgments repeatedly. His complexion is swarthy and his face so varied in its expression that it is very difficult to convey an accurate description of its many changes. His hair is black and long, his eyes dark gray, and his height slightly under six feet. His shoulders are broad, his figure is well proportioned and his tout ensemble is thoroughly artistic. Mr. Irving's features are not dissimilar to the portraits of Mr. Oscar Wilde, but he is a more refined edition of the familiar type of that eccentric apostle of aestheticism. Mr. Irving's smile is peculiarly fascinating. His eyebrows are black and heavy, his forehead is receding, but the lower portion of his face is decidedly of a classic cast. His mouth is large but shapely. He wears his hair parted slightly to one side. His manner of walking, however, is stately. He moves, or rather struts, with a forward inclination of his body, as if he were about to seize the person whom he addresses. Immediately following Mr. Irving, Miss Terry came on deck. The lady wore a rough ulster, a cloth cap, and thick English walking boots. The lady is a thorough type of an English woman. Although she is not by any means beautiful, her face is very pleasing. While coming up the bay, Irving said to a reporter, "I can only say I am moved, deeply moved, by so much kindness and general hospitality. I accept it as a happy augury of the kind reception I may expect from the American public." "About which you are somewhat anxious?" "No, not at all. It gives me no anxiety. I regard the matter as altogether outside any personal considerations. If the American people think I am worth seeing I suppose they will come and see me. If they conclude I am not worth the money they will stay away." "You have had many critics, Mr. Irving?" "Yes, and shall continue to have them, I suppose." Here Mr. Lawrence Barrett came into the saloon and proposed Mr. Irving's health in the following appropriate speech: "I hope, gentlemen, you will fill your glasses and drink with me Mr. Irving's health. I wish him a warm, honest welcome to America. He is worthy of it, and when the time comes for him to return, I trust he will return home with nothing to regret." Miss Terry was entirely overcome by the thoroughness of her welcome. To a reporter she said: "I don't know what to say. I can't begin to tell you how greatly I appreciate all this kindness. To me it seems almost bewildering, and if I expressed what I really feel, and what 'multitudes' would perhaps best define my feelings. I do not feel as a stranger, but please don't say any more about it or else I shall have a good cry." Upon arrival at the State Line wharf, Mr. Irving and party were driven to the Brevoort House.

Senator McPherson's Political Ideas.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Senator McPherson, of New Jersey, is so confident of the election of Leon Abbott as governor of that State that he says his death can only prevent his success. He believes the "old ticket" will be re-nominated next year, if Tilden's health permits, and says New Jersey has no candidate. Arthur's nomination by the Republicans he regards as certain. He does not sympathize with those Democrats who condemn Ben Butler for leaving the party in 1890 any more than he would condemn Republicans for leaving their party now.

Refuses to Call a Meeting.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—Dr. Rudolph Virchow, President of the Anthropological Society has refused to call a congress of its members to meet at Berlin, fearing that the present delicate state of feeling in Paris would better French delegates from attending. He suggests the adoption of some other place of meeting.

Convict Shot by a Guard.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 22.—It has just come to light that last Wednesday night John Roos, a guard at the St. Paul workhouse, shot and badly wounded Morris Flinn, a prisoner who was attempting to escape. Flinn may recover. Roos is held thoroughly justified.

BAD ELOPEMENT CASE.

Palmer of Pittsburg Leaves His Family and Runs Off.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 22.—John Edwin Palmer, a telegraph operator who has been employed by the Western Union Telegraph Company for many years, has eloped with Miss Sallie Rimmel, an employee of the telephone company in this city. Palmer was a Vermont man, about six feet high with a fair complexion, bushy black whiskers and unkempt hair. He was awkward and ungainly, while Miss Rimmel was rather good looking. He is thirty-eight years of age and the girl is sixteen. Palmer was the Superintendent of the Sunday-school of the M. E. Church at Mansfield, a suburb, and always professed an active interest in the work of the church. He was teacher of the Bible class and Miss Rimmel was one of his scholars. He got her a position with the telephone company of this city and brought her to and from the city in the morning and evening, both residing in Mansfield. Palmer was not a member of the telegraphers' brotherhood, and on account of his meanness of character and disagreeable ways he had not a friend among his fellow workers. Shortly before the telegraphers' strike Palmer had announced that he was going to retire from the business, but when the strike took place, Palmer was a "seab" of most pronounced stripe. Some time ago Palmer left the city and shortly after Miss Rimmel resigned her position and disappeared. A day or two ago Mrs. Palmer, who did not know what had become of her husband, received a letter and power of attorney postmarked Canada, in which he gave her the house and contents at Mansfield. He said he was going to live with Miss Rimmel in the future and that she could take care of herself. There is a coat of tar and feathers waiting for Mr. Palmer at Mansfield.

A Careless Explosion.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—While a number of children were playing in a new building at 208 East Fifty-eighth street, last evening, one of them found a giant powder cartridge which had been carelessly left behind by some workmen. Not knowing the dangerous nature of the package they made a hole in one end of it and applied a lighted match. In an instant there was a terrific explosion and several of the children were blown a dozen feet away. The report of the explosion was heard several blocks and in a few minutes hundreds of excited persons had gathered around the building. Four of the children, John Burke, aged six; Michael Tylor, aged seven; John and Wm. Cunningham, aged six and seven years, were terribly burned. Burke besides being burned had his skull fractured and can't live. Tylor was badly hurt about the legs. The two Cunninghams were seriously burned about the face and head, and will, it is feared, lose their eyesight. They were taken at once to Roosevelt Hospital.

Arrest of a Murderer.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 22.—A man named John Kelley was arrested yesterday morning accused of the murder of Jacob Lutz, sr., at the rapids in the town of Chili, N. Y., by beating him with a club on the head. Jacob Lutz, jr., tells the story that Kelly came to the house about one o'clock in the morning and asked to be allowed to come in. He was admitted and went to bed with the father. About 3 o'clock Kelly got up and beat the elder Lutz until he died. The boy started to give an alarm, but Kelly pulled him back and beat him, inflicting injuries that may prove fatal. There was no quarrel or words between Kelly and either of the Lutzes. It is thought the murder was committed for the sake of Lutz's money, which he had in the house. Kelly had in his possession three two dollar bills, one stained with blood. It is known that Lutz received four bills of that denomination on Saturday night. Kelly claims that he was not near the house, and accounts for the blood by the fact that his nose had been bleeding.

An Arkansas Criminal Captured.

CAIRO, Ill., Oct. 22.—Sheriff Haskins, of Osceola, Ark., together with Mound City Marshal Ross and Deputy Sheriff Painter effected the arrest of an Arkansas desperado named J. P. Maupin, near Villard, who is wanted in Arkansas for grand larceny, and about all the other crimes in the calendar. Maupin was out on bail, having been indicted for grand larceny, and suddenly disappeared. His wife swore he was drowned, and soon after came to Villard to join the fugitive. Having been closely watched by officers, she was followed and her husband apprehended. Hastings being prepared with a requisition, the prisoner was taken to Osceola immediately.

Missouri Granite.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—The Supervising Architect of the Treasury received a sample of Missouri granite in connection with a bid of a granite company in St. Louis on the Pittsburg public building. This particular variety of stone attracted considerable attention in the Architect's office, and Mr. Hill pronounces it the finest specimen of building stone he has ever seen. It is deemed chiefly remarkable for its dark, rich color and susceptibility of polish. Mr. Hill thinks the Pittsburg building should be granite, and from the lively competition and low prices deems it not improbable that it will yet be so.

Murderer Shot.

CLYDE, Iowa, Oct. 22.—W. A. Kline, under indictment here for the murder of Mayor Stubbs, of Polk City, was shot Saturday and died Sunday in a comatose condition. After Kline's release on bail, he went to his deceased father's farm, which was occupied by John Cools, his brother-in-law. The latter resisted his intrusion, and the two had frequent quarrels. While Kline was eating his breakfast, Cools shot him in the back with a revolver. He then tried to shoot three others in the room, but all escaped. He then took to the woods and cannot be found.

CURED BY FAITH.

The Remarkable Case of Agnes Walter, of Lafayette.

The Efficiency of Spring Water and Piety in Cases of Paralysis—An Invalid of Eight Years' Standing Suddenly Cured by Prayer.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 22.—Agnes Walter, a young lady residing in this city, was unable to move and was blind. Now she walks and can see. Eight years ago she was seized with cerebro-spinal meningitis, which left her lower limbs paralyzed. The best physicians of the city have treated, and pronounced her incurable. Dr. S. T. Yount has been her physician for three years. She was in convulsions most of the time, and these would continue as long as two or three weeks. Dr. Yount says that she presented a most terrible appearance. For weeks at a time she took no nourishment whatever. Recently a young lady friend, Miss Kinsman, returned from Europe and brought with her some water from the fountain of Our Lady of Lourdes. This Miss Walter has been applying and drinking. A nine-days' session of prayer was begun by herself and other members of the church. This terminated yesterday morning, when she was removed in an unconscious condition to the church. She at length was revived, took communion, and instantly she could see and walk unaided. She believes that prayer did it. Dr. Young and others pronounce it a most marvelous case. Last evening, when the doctors and relatives called, she walked across the room to show that she was indeed cured. Her case seems miraculous, and there are many more besides who are familiar with the case who attribute it to the power of prayer.

Tennessee Bond Case.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 22.—Chancellor Merritt has dismissed the suit of John H. Wright and others against Governor Bate and the Funding Board, to enjoin the board from carrying out the provisions of the act passed the last session of the Legislature, authorizing the funding of State bonds at fifty cents, with 3 per cent. interest. It was stated by the court that the bill was without equity, and it was therefore dismissed at the cost of the plaintiffs. In deciding the case, Chancellor Merritt said: "The only point made by complainants necessary to notice is that it is not lawful to appropriate taxes to the building of railroads, and that the bonds of this State for such purpose are void." The Chancellor said that as this question had been before the Supreme Court of the State in a large number of cases, and had uniformly ruled against the view of complainants, it was unnecessary to examine the question. The Funding Board is still at work, but its operations are confined to small batches of bonds.

Murdered for His Money.

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 22.—The preliminary examination of Wm. Dodson and Nellie C. Bailey, charged with murdering C. Batholmy, in Indian Territory, on the night of October 7th, held last night, will probably clear Dodson. Batholmy was an Englishman of wealth, owning a ranch in Harvey county. He started in September for Texas with 2,000 sheep. Dodson and young Vetter, the only witness in the case, were his herdsmen. Nellie accompanied him as his mistress. They had a house on wheels which he and Nellie, who is young and attractive, occupied together. In this car Batholmy was found dead. The theory is that Dodson and the woman murdered him for his money. Circumstantial evidence is very strong showing the woman guilty.

Marital of Zora Burns.

VANDALIA, Ill., Oct. 22.—The last scene of the tragedy at Lincoln a week ago last night was witnessed this afternoon by hundreds of people, when the remains of Zora Burns were placed beside those of her mother and five sisters in the Cemetery near St. Elmo. The chief mourner was the murdered girl's betrothed lover, Thos. Dukes.

A Queer Stock Transaction.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A Philadelphia house, having an office here, loaned Northern Pacific preferred at 4 per cent. here, which they borrowed in Philadelphia flat, and sent the stock by messenger on a special locomotive. The run was made from Philadelphia in one hour and forty-two minutes.

The Pueblo Land Grant.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—Secretary Teller has removed the suspension placed upon his decision of last July in the Pueblo land grant of San Francisco, modifying the decision in some unimportant particulars so as to give contesting parties a standing in court.

Sudden Death.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 22.—Albert Disston, the managing partner of the extensive tool works of Henry Disston & Sons, died suddenly yesterday of inflammation of the bowels, aged 33. He had but a few days ago taken possession of a mansion upon which he had expended $180,000.

Fatally Stabbed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—During a quarrel between Jacob Gobetz and Charles Gower, both of whom are employed at Ebling's brewery, Gobetz stabbed Gower in the abdomen inflicting a fatal wound. Gobetz was locked up.

Land League Excitement.

DUBLIN, Oct. 22.—There was no excitement in the town of Inniscarr over the Government prohibition of the proposed league meeting last night. Considerable disappointment is felt, but there are no indications of disorder.

A DESPERATE LEAP.

Ready to Die Rather Than Return to State Prison Again.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Thomas Burke, alias John Doe, an ex-convict, has been arrested by Officers Michael Sullivan and Quigley, of the Madison street police, charged with highway robbery, on complaint of Thomas Fitzpatrick, of No. 140 East Broadway. When the officers attempted to make the arrest Burke placed a revolver at Officer Sullivan's chest and pulled the trigger twice. The pistol hung fire, however, and the robber was overpowered and knocked down. He struggled fiercely to gain his freedom on the way to the station house, and on arrival there gave the name of John Doe. He was arraigned before Judge Gardner at Essex Market and committed to the Tombs in default of $2,500 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. About 8 o'clock in the morning as the Black Maria drove up to the Essex Market Prison where the highwayman was confined during Thursday night, Keeper Daly opened Burke's cell door on the second tier and ordered him to follow him to the first floor, as he was to be taken to the Tombs. With a terrible yell the prisoner darted up the third tier of cells, seized hold on the railings and threw himself to the floor thirty feet below. He was picked up unconscious and taken to Bellevue Hospital. The ambulance surgeon on examination said that so far as he could see no bones were broken, but the man's spine was badly injured and he may not recover. On recovering consciousness he begged to be allowed to die. "I don't want to go to State prison again. I have had enough of that. I'll die rather than go there again." Burke is about twenty-eight years old and five feet seven inches in height. He has served a term at Sing Sing for burglary.

RAILROAD DISPUTE.

The Supreme Court Settles a Warmly Contested Question.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 22.—In the State Supreme Court yesterday Justice Gordon filed an opinion in the Sharpville railroad case. This was a contest between two cliques of stockholders for control of the Board of Directors. W. L. Scott, of Erie, was the head of one. The decision is against Scott. The question in the case was the validity of cumulative voting, and the Court decided it was perfectly proper under the Pennsylvania Constitution and that no notice of an intention to vote in that manner was necessary.

Losses by Careless Use of Matches.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—A table in the interest of the fire insurance companies has appeared presenting the annual loss in the United States resulting from the careless use of matches. A record of 133 noteworthy fires caused in this way during the year ending with June, 1883, showed a property loss of $411,530, and an insurance loss of $211,685. These sums were believed to represent only about three-fifths of the actual loss by match fires, which was estimated at fully $700,000 annually. At $700,000 the loss from matches alone is greater than the annual loss by fire of twenty one States and territories, and is about equal to the fire losses of Mississippi or North Carolina, or of Oregon. If the comparison be made in another way it will be found to be equal to the aggregate fire loss of eight States and territories.

A Missing Virginia Capitalist.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.—Wm. D. Hall, one of the oldest and most prominent citizens of Millenbeck, Lancaster county, Virginia, left his home on September 29 last, and has not since been seen or heard of. He went to Fredericksburg by steamer, and there took the train for New York. The failure of his family in Connecticut, from which State Mr. Hall came, to hear from him caused a correspondence between parties in Virginia and the family in Connecticut, resulting in the discovery of his disappearance. Telegrams were sent to various parts of the country and every effort made to discover his whereabouts, but without success. An inquiry among some of his acquaintances in this city developed the fact that he is indebted to several Baltimore firms to the extent of $12,000. He also owes large sums in Norfolk and Lancaster county. Capt. Burton, of Virginia, one of his partners, is in this city trying to straighten up affairs. Several of the Baltimore creditors have seized Mr. Hall's property in Virginia.

Decrease in Freight Receipts.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The East bound grain shipments by rail from this city decreased over 4,000 tons during last week and the decline would have been heavier had it not been for the St. Louis switchmen's strike, which forced considerable business through Chicago. This week's shipments, it is expected, will show a yet larger decrease. Freight rates have been well maintained lately by all the Eastward Trunk lines, and no doubt will be as long as the roads have more business than they can handle, as at present.

Land League Meeting.

DUBLIN, Oct. 22.—Eighty thousand people were present at a meeting of the National League in Wexford last night. Michael Davitt and Mr. Healy were the principal speakers. Mr. Davitt severely denounced the land act and urged his hearers to endeavor by all means to make the league more efficient and so aggressive as to strike terror into the hearts of the landlords. After the meeting Mr. Healy was presented with a purse of £700.

Coaching Accident.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 22.—While Congressman Wadsworth was returning from a fox-chase at Mount Morris Saturday afternoon and when near Groveland, the forward truck of the Tally-ho coach gave way and Mr. Wadsworth was thrown to the ground, breaking his left leg near the ankle. Some twelve or fourteen persons on the coach were also thrown down and more or less injured.

THE comment is made that Mr. Mulhall, the English statistician's suggested remedies for suicide are really preventives of insanity. He tabulated them somewhat oddly as follows: 1. To abolish the duty on coffee, which is the greatest foe to intemperance. 2. To open museums and galleries on Sunday afternoons. 3. To forbid marriages between cousins, under penalty of paying double the ordinary poor rates. 4. To imitate Peabody, as far as possible, in erecting suitable workmen's tenements. 5. To recommend less high pressure in schools.

Attention, Mr. Justice Harlan.

Before Mr. Justice Harlan prepares his dissenting opinion upon the civil rights act, it will be well for him to refresh his memory upon all points connected with that question. We therefore reproduce for his benefit the following resolutions passed at a mass meeting held in the city of Frankfort, on the 20th day of February, 1893, immediately after the veto of the Freedmen's Bureau measure by President Andrew Johnson.

The resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, are said to have been written by Mr. Justice Harlan, who, after their passage, made a speech heartily endorsing them.

We now respectfully ask his attention to all the resolutions, but more especially to the fourth:

WHEREAS, The people of the United States have been saved from one of the greatest calamities that ever threatened any nation, through the firmness and statesmanship of the President; and whereas, the Freedmen's Bureau bill would have been a serious and deliberate attempt to subvert the liberties and best interests of the people of Kentucky; therefore,

Resolved, That the citizens of Franklin county in convention assembled do hereby declare the monstrous, tyrannical and unconstitutional Freedmen's Bureau bill lately passed by the Congress of the United States, the President has justly earned for himself the unqualified gratitude of his countrymen, and has signally demonstrated, not only his ability as a statesman, but also, in an eminent degree, a just claim to a high order of patriotism and moral courage, and we hail this noble act as giving promise of a brighter future.

Resolved, That the taxation of a people and legislation for them, when at the same time they are denied representation and an outlet, is incompatible with the acknowledged principles of free government, was resisted by our fathers when attempted by the British Government, and which now, but by a narrow margin, have attempted to justify.

Resolved, That the States alone have the right to regulate by law, each for itself, without interference or question, any State, or by the Federal Government, the subject of suffrage; and any attempt by the Federal Government to abridge or interfere with such right is wholly unwarranted by the constitution of the United States, and subversive of our system of Government.

Resolved, That each State has the exclusive right to fix and regulate by law the political and civil status of its citizens, and any attempt by the Federal Government to interfere with this right of the States by special legislation in favor of or against any class, race, or nationality, in the States, respectively, is the exercise of power without constitutional warrant, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

Resolved, That the eighteen Senators who snubbed the President, and contributed to the overthrow of the odious and unconstitutional Freedmen's Bureau bill are each entitled to the gratitude of the country, and have shown themselves worthy of the office, the duties of which they have so nobly and honorably discharged.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the people of this country who have any regard for free government, and who are attached to the system and principles devised and adopted by our illustrious and patriotic forefathers, and handed down to us by them, to sustain and uphold President Johnson in his struggle to resist the revolutionary measures of the Radicals both in and out of Congress.

Resolved, That the people of Kentucky entertain no feeling of hostility or unkindness towards the colored population of the State; whatever grounds of complaint they may have for the past, they are almost entirely in their former slaves by the Federal authorities, they have none against the negroes for accepting the freedom secured to them by agencies over which they had no control; but, on the contrary, a disposition has been clearly shown by their former masters and others to treat them kindly, and to deal with them justly, and it cases to the contrary can be shown, they are very few, and are exceptions to the prevailing rule, and redress can be had without sale or denial in the State courts; that there is a disposition upon the part of the whites almost universally to secure to the black population, by law, full and ample protection of all their civil rights of personal property, which has already substantially been done; but we protest, both upon grounds of policy and principle, against any interference upon this subject by the Federal Government, or by any of the agencies thereof, and we declare our opinion that the presence of the Freedmen's Bureau in this State is only calculated to engender hostility between the two races and materially to injure the interests of both.

EARTHQUAKES.

The Shocks in Central Europe Still Continued.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—The earthquake shocks reported in Central Europe continue, but have done no serious damage. There has been a recurrence of the convulsions in Anatolia and at Smyrna, but of a more violent description than those heretofore reported. A large number of buildings, which had been weakened by previous shocks, fell in. Fortunately but few lives were lost, as the inhabitants, who were panic-stricken from the effects of the last shocks, had abandoned their homes and were sleeping in the streets and other open places. The people have become so alarmed at the frequency of the shocks that they are migrating in large numbers. Officers report further havoc at several towns and villages in the interior of Anatolia and also at Chios.

DAVID DAVIS.

He Takes Radical Ground on the Jesse James Combination.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Oct. 22.—Ex-Vice President David Davis has arrived here from Washington City, having journeyed that way homeward from a protracted visit to his wife's relatives in North Carolina. The distinguished statesman upon leaving from Tellotson & Fell, the lessees of Durbin Opera House, the principal place of amusement in the city, and owned by the Senator, had rented the Hall to the Jesse James "Bandit King" Combination, became very much enraged, and will prevail upon the City Council to prevent the appearance of the Company next Friday evening.

BISMARCK JEALOUS.

His Disaffection Over English Influence in Turkey.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—It is asserted in diplomatic circles here that Prince Bismarck is jealous of Lord Dufferin's influence in Constantinople and the many courtesies extended him by the Sultan and his ministry. In speaking of the reforms now being inaugurated in Armenia on the recommendation of Lord Dufferin, Prince Bismarck deprecated the hasty manner in which they were being put into effect, stating that the representatives of other powers should have been consulted before such a step was taken.

A Corpse Resuscitated.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis., Oct. 22.—The sensation of the day is the return to life of the young daughter of a wealthy German, who after several weeks of sickness apparently died. On the fourth day the funeral was held. While the ceremonies were in progress, Dr. Baxter, of Milwaukee, interrupted the religious services declaring that the girl was in trance. He attempted resuscitation and the horror-stricken mourners beheld the corpse rise up in the coffin with a terrific shriek. She is now convalescent and states that she fully realized in the trance, that she was being prepared for burial, but could do nothing.

Serenaded in Jail.

HOT SPRING, Ark., Oct. 22.—The case of Moses C. Harris, editor of the Morning Horsehoe, now in jail for alleged contempt of court, still continues to excite general interest. Last night a great crowd, headed by a brass band, assembled at the jail and tendered Harris a serenade. In response to calls he appeared and made a brief speech. The Horsehoe continues to criticize Judge Wood's course on the bench. Harris is writing editorials in jail. He reiterates every material allegation charged, and dares Judge Wood to permit him to introduce proof to substantiate them.

Killed His Brother-in-Law.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Charles Mason, who keeps a large boarding house on the west side of the city, shot three times and killed his brother-in-law, W. H. Paddock, a photographer. The latter married Mason's daughter three years ago, proving a worthless husband, neglecting business for dissipation and his wife for women of the town. Paddock was intoxicated when he first attacked his brother-in-law, who refused to let him see his sister in that condition. Paddock was disarmed, after firing one futile shot, and killed with his own weapon on the public street.

Meeting House Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 22.—About 6 o'clock this morning the Fairhill Friends' Meeting House, at Germantown road and Cambria street, was burned. The interior of the building was entirely gutted, but the walls remain standing. The loss is estimated at $6,000; covered by insurance.

The Allen Estate.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 22.—In the Federal Court in the case of the executor's sale of Edward Cook, heir of John Cook, against Herot Sherman, assignee of B. F. Allen, the banker, an action to recover Cook's share in the Iowa Land Company as partner of Allen, the Court ordered the assignee to pay to Cook's executor $22,000.

A Steamer Sunk.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 22.—The stern-wheel steamer "Far-West" struck a snag on the Missouri River thirty miles from this city and sank, causing a total loss of the boat and cargo. She was valued at $10,000 and had a carrying capacity of 237 tons. The cargo was valued at about $10,000.

Killed by a Train.

WEBSTER, Mass., Oct. 22.—Yesterday a wagon containing Frank Herker and Joseph Kapler, Germans, on their way to visit friends at Wiltonville, Conn., was struck by a train on the Norwich road two and a half miles south of here. Herker was killed and Kapler fatally hurt.

Four Men Burned to Death.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 22.—A fire which originated in Louis Clayton's store early this morning, on market space, spread to and consumed nine buildings and damaged others. The loss is about $50,000. There is a report, as yet unsubstantiated, that two lives have been lost.

The Count Gets Killed.

VIENNA, Oct. 22.—Count Stefan Bathany and Dr. Julius Rosenberg fought a duel on the outskirts of Pemesvar, in Hungary, at an early hour this morning, and Count Bathany was killed.

The matriculation in the Bible College of Kentucky University is unusually large, being nearly twice what it was two years ago. There is, also, a considerable increase in the Art College. The literary societies of the Universities—three in number—have full membership and great interest in them is being manifested by the students.

INSTEAD of the usual prayer meeting services at the Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening, there will be preaching by the pastor, Rev. S. H. Chester. It is hoped that there will be full attendance as possible. Rev. Dr. Rutherford, of Paris, will preach Thursday and Friday evenings. Communion services in the church on Sunday morning. The public is cordially invited.

New Spinning Frame.

The Boston Journal of Commerce thus notices the invention of Mr. Jaquith, of this city:

A few days ago January & Wood, of the Maysville Cotton Mill, Ky., put up and set in operation a spinning frame which is emphatically a Kentucky invention, and a valued departure in cotton spinning. The frame carries 200 spindles, and is the invention of G. Jaquith, who, for the first time, on the 12th of the current month, after the labor and study of a lifetime, realized its successful operation. To say it is an entire success would be putting it mildly; it is more—it is perfect. A part of these spindles are running at the enormous speed of 12,300 turns per minute, and at the speed of 18,200 turns, with no appearance of heating or unsteadiness. They are spinning No. 40 yarn, with a result which can only be understood by those who can witness the look of satisfaction on the inventor's face. While speed will always be more or less a matter of difference of opinion among spinners, Mr. Jaquith claims, and is here to prove to any one interested, a production at least one-third greater with the exertion of absolutely less dynamometer force. This he accomplishes by a peculiar formation of his spindle, making it self-rolling, dust-proof, running in hardened steel, in fact, a high speed spindle, while at the enormous speed attained not the slightest jar or tremble was noticeable. While the holders, of other frames running are saying, "this thing is impracticable, it can't stand," Mr. J. smilingly points them to the fact that it does stand. It is practical, and, as a result, it is a triumph. It is entirely safe to say, as the machine is working to-day, the world has never seen its equal. With the high speeds now attained by the new frame, the builders, with the cotton and woolen industries falling into line, what may be accomplished in the next decade is indeed problematical; certain it is that high speed, as applied in this case, is a radical success, increasing production, with a smaller percentage of power, and to an extent warranting the claim of the inventor of the best spinning frame ever put to work. The holders of 200 spindles is run by an inch belt. Parties interested are invited to correspond with Messrs. January & Wood, Maysville, Ky.

PERSONALS.

BAD BLACK FLAGS.

Eating Their Enemies to Raise Their Own Courage.

Horrible Practices of the Oriental Fetters of the French Extraordinary
Tales of Cruelty and Torture.

HONG KONG, Oct. 22.—A correspondent writes: Yesterday I met Major General Mesny, of the Imperial Chinese army, now en route for Foochow, to take charge of the naval arsenal. He says that if prisoners fall into the hands of the Black Flags they will be reserved for torture, but the bodies of the dead will not be found, as the Chinese believe that eating the flesh of ferocious men, especially the heart and liver, makes them brave, therefore they are accustomed to eat their enemies. The Black Flags are strongly addicted to this habit; they even eat their own people who die by accident on the march. This may account for the ill success which attended the search for the bodies of Riviere and his followers, whose heads alone were found on the last sortie by General Bonet.

HONG KONG, Oct. 22.—Advices from Yun Nan confirm the report that the Chinese are assisting the Black Flags in Anam, who number 3,000 men, exclusive of those in the garrisons at Bac Ninh and Son Tay.

The Viceroy of Canton objects to foreigners traversing the streets. Ten thousand men are concentrated near Canton, ostensibly on account of an anticipated popular commotion. The Viceroy complains of the withdrawal of the Portuguese gunboat with the watchman, who drowned a Chinaman, and precipitated the recent riots. The Viceroy demands that the British courts be handed over to the British courts for trial. The Portuguese officials, in reply, said the prisoner was at Macao.

Chicago Saloon Licenses.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Last spring the State Legislature passed a law fixing the price of saloon licenses at $500. The City Council sought to avoid its operation by passing an ordinance, before the law went into effect, fixing the price for the ensuing year at $103. The Citizens' League have since been fighting the legality of these licenses in the courts, but met with dilatory tactics on the other side. Finally, to hurry matters, an action in quo warranto was brought against a prominent saloon-keeper. His counsel demurred, presenting various reasons, all to the effect that this was not the proper method of procedure. Judge Anthony will render a decision on the demurrer. The opinion is all written except the formal ruling. In it he combats and denies the validity of the points relied on by demurring counsel, and the conclusion reached from a perusal of the document is that he will rule the method of procedure a proper one. This will bring the question to an issue. The final decision will affect between 3,000 and 4,000 saloons, involving over $1,500,000.

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian HAIR RENEWER was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfillment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction. The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE FOR THE WHISKERS

SIMMONS' MEDICATED WELL-WATER.

A Specific for Dyspepsia and Diseases of the Kidneys.

HAS been used with most gratifying success in many obstinate cases. Prof. F. W. Clark, professor of Chemistry at the University of Cincinnati says this water "belongs to the same class with that of the Alleghany Springs, of Virginia," the medicinal virtues of which are too well known to be stated here. Those who desire to try this famous water are referred to Captain U. W. Boyd, Levanina Ohio; Captain C. M. Holloway, Cincinnati, Ohio; J. J. Rulpe, Cincinnati, Ohio.
